

CHEC

COMMONWEALTH HUMAN ECOLOGY COUNCIL

Zena Daysh Inaugural Lecture

India and the Commonwealth:
Policies, People and Politics – can the media help with the future?

Speaker: Mark Tully

Thursday 13 September 2018, 6 – 9 pm
Venue: Royal Overseas League, Princess Alexandra Hall
Park Place, St James's Street, London SW1A 1LR

Zena Daysh (1914 – 2011)

SPEAKER PROFILE: MARK TULLY

William Mark Tully, KBE, is the award winning former Bureau Chief of the BBC, New Delhi. He worked with the BBC for 30 years before retiring in July 1994. He held the position of Chief of Bureau, BBC, Delhi, for 20 years. He has also been honoured by the Government of India. He is now a freelance journalist.

The Lecture is free, but you are requested to register in advance!

There will be a Reception starting at 6pm before the talk which will start at 6.45.
A contribution of £15 towards the Reception will be most welcome

Register at contact@checinternational.org or call +44 020368 90979

Ref: Zena Daysh Lecture

Sponsors: Commonwealth Journalists Association, Ramphal Institute,
Council for Education in the Commonwealth, Royal Over-Seas League

CHEC International HQ
4, Hurlingham Studios, Ranelagh Gardens, London SW6 3PA
tel: +44 (0)20 368 90979 E-mail: contact@checinternational.org
www.checinternational.org

